■Overview of Disclosure

Based on our Purpose (our reason for being) “to enrich the lives of everyone today and for generations to come, one fine day at a time” as well as “Fine Today & Tomorrow 2030,” our mid-to-long-term vision aimed at putting these into practice, the FineToday Group has been promoting an array of initiatives that contribute to sustainability in a manner integral to our business operations ever since our establishment.

With recognition that the promotion of ESG initiatives is as integral to management as business operations, we aim to enhance our corporate value consolidating financial and non-financial aspects not only by providing products and services through our business but also by providing value in terms of sustainability, encompassing the environment, human rights, and other important areas.

The report includes a message from the CEO, the progress of “Fine Today & Tomorrow 2030,” and the environment (E), society (S), and governance (G) related initiatives. In addition, as an Asian glocal company with 20 manufacturing, sales, and brand marketing locations in Japan, China, and APAC (Asia-Pacific region,) we have also created a new section to introduce the topics of sustainability-related activities at each location.

In the course of preparing this report, we made use of the Global Reporting Initiative (GRI), which provides international guidelines on explaining contributions to sustainability, as well as the framework of the Task Force on Climate-related Financial Disclosures (TCFD) as references.

With our Purpose as our starting point, we will continue to promote measures for the ESG as part of its business activities, while striving to continuously improve corporate value.
